David Chiem

"David's workshop has indeed changed my perception exponentially and I can't wait to kick-start what I've learnt with my children at home."

- Kunihide Seno

The Founder and Group CEO of multi-award winning international education institute MindChamps, David Chiem is a master coach and trainer, having pioneered a unique approach in mind development that integrates study and theatrical techniques with Champion Mindset strategies for adults and youths.

David's natural ability to inspire his audiences has made him an invaluable and highly sought after speaker, trainer and coach. His amazing energy and positive mindset have taught many to venture out of their comfort zone, igniting new passion and potential.

Establishing MindChamps, David has, according to Emeritus Professor Allan Snyder FRS, the distinguished neuroscientist behind the Champion Mindset concept, "crossed many bridges of success to achieve a remarkable synthesis of art, education and entrepreneurship."

In 2007, David founded the Home Nation Movement to equip parents, the leaders of the home nation, with the Champion Parenting Mindset and empower them with the latest scientifically-validated parenting strategies to effectively lead their children towards championship. David has presented numerous parenting workshops and published magazines and books on the subject of Champion Parenting, including Deeper than the Ocean, hailed as the 'parenting bible of the 21st century', its follow-up, The Art of Communicating with Your Child, The 3-Mind Revolution, a new world-view for all parents, educators and leaders, and Pre-school Parenting Secrets – Talking with the Sky.

For his impressive range of achievements, David was awarded the Entrepreneur of the Year by Rotary~ASME in 2008. In 2011, MindChamps was awarded Established Brand at the Singapore Prestige Brand Awards. In recognition of exceptional contribution to the education industry over the past 10 years in Singapore, MindChamps was presented with the Most Outstanding Achievement for Education award at the SME 500 awards in 2012. In 2013, MindChamps PreSchool was chosen as Winner, Franchisor of the Year by the Franchising and Licensing Association of Singapore.

Since 2011, MindChamps has been ranked as a Singapore/SME 1000 company. 2014 marks the fourth year running that MindChamps has received this recognition – MindChamps sits in the top 1.5% of all Singapore/ SME companies (top 1000 out of 60,000 companies reviewed by ACRA).

David Chiem has achieved more than what most people would have wished for from a lifetime of work. From a childhood of hardship and challenge, he has built a career of diversity and success. David is indisputably a man whose personality and achievements encapsulate the very concept of the Champion Mindset.

"Through Brian's workshop, I now understand the importance of leading and transforming my child's mindset and attitude."

- Clarence Lim

Brian Caswell is an internationally-acclaimed award-winning author and a respected educationist with over thirty-five years' experience in the areas of public and private education – including over a decade as an examiner of the NSW Higher School Certificate.

Brian Caswell

For the past two decades, he has been in constant demand as a speaker and literary consultant. During that time, he has visited hundreds of schools, libraries and universities and has spoken to hundreds of thousands of people on three continents, including being an international guest-speaker at the famous Hay on Wye Literature Festival in Wales.

He has been appointed to the Australian Council Literature Board's Register of Peers. He has held the post of Writer in Residence at the University of Western Sydney (UWS) and has judged numerous writing and literary awards, including the prestigious NSW Premier's Literary Awards, the national Nestlé Write Around Australia Award and the UWS Young Writer's Award.

Brian's more than 200 books (including novels, short-stories, parenting and educational books) have been recognised internationally. He has won numerous awards including the Human Rights Award for Children's Literature, the Children's Peace Literature Award and the Australian Multi-Cultural Literature Award. He has also achieved five nominations for the prestigious NSW Premier's Awards, and has the rare distinction of being included three times on the International Youth Library's international selection of notable new books – the White Ravens.

As Dean of Research and Program Development at MindChamps, Brian has dedicated himself to creating programs that enhance students' learning, active recall and thinking processes – and their social development – using creativity, whole-brain learning strategies and mnemonic structures which take into account the latest research into how the brain learns and stores information.

Brian has encapsulated the MindChamps' educational philosophy and pedagogy in the best-selling The 3-Mind Revolution, a new world view for all parents, educators and leaders. He has also written numerous articles and chapters on education and youth literature, including a 65-book series, written especially for the MindChamps Reading & Writing program. The series, collectively known as the MindChamps Read-along Library has recently been converted into electronic format, with another 100 to be written in 2015.

Angie Toh

"I would highly recommend working with Angie as a coach. Not only because of her integrity, caring attitude and practical suggestions but also because she sparks a transformation in you!"

- Bindiya Aravandekar

Angie Toh is an international transformation coach and trainer based in Singapore.

She is a certified Results Coach with the Neuroleadership Group (formerly known as Results Coaching Systems) and a certified Money Coach with the Money Coaching Institute.

Angie's last corporate role was with a global coaching organisation as the Director of Coach Certification, managing the business in Asia as well as leading a sales team globally.

A member of the International Coach Federation (ICF), Angie is passionate about facilitating and helping others to gain insight into their true potential, to expand their awareness of who they can become as a person and live a purposeful and successful life.

Angie is also one of the pioneer Breathworkers in Asia. Breathwork is a safe and powerful technique developed in the early 70s to help release stress, suppressed emotions and limiting beliefs. Her training as a Breathworker allows her to have an in-depth understanding of the development of children, family dynamics, sibling rivalry and the power of thoughts and emotions in parenting.

As an Education Advisor with MindChamps from 2006 to 2008, Angie was in the pioneer group to be trained and certified as an Education Success Coach. An Education Success Coach is equipped with life coaching skills, the latest understanding of psychology and neuroscience, as well as an in-depth knowledge of local school system requirements to guide children and families to develop the clarity to initiate their own steps towards achieving life-long success.

Angie has coached and facilitated workshops on personal effectiveness and parenting all over Asia, including Singapore, Malaysia, Hong Kong and India.

"Greg is like a top-line sports coach and he teaches techniques that are unique but very effective!"

- Shi Sugeng

Raymond Koh

"Ray is an excellent presenter. His coaching style is very insightful, with explanations that are clear and concise. I now understand more about parenting in terms of establishing rapport with my child and my communication style!"

- Tan Hwee Yong

Raymond Koh is an accomplished teacher, trainer and coach for more than 12 years. He has given various fathering, parenting and life skills coaching talks and workshops with the goal of inspiring and building strong parent-child relationships. He has worked with schools, companies and volunteer organisations to promote shared parenting involvement, work-life balance and parent-child bonding. Happily married for 26 years, Raymond is a father to two lovely girls.

For his work with the Centre for Fathering, Singapore, which he co-founded, Raymond was awarded the Best New Initiative by the National Volunteer & Philanthropy Centre in 2000. Raymond also brought his parenting-education to another level, being certified as a Parent-Education Leadership Trainer by Swinburne University (Aus), Triple-P facilitator and a Living Values Educator / Train-the-trainer by LVEP.

As a coach, Raymond's work experience has taken him across an interesting spectrum of interaction with customers, students, parents and even prison inmates. His overarching passion is empowering people to find their own solutions to their challenges, whether they be a student desiring to reach his potential, parents struggling with their roles or even an inmate needing a second chance at life.

Now an Assistant Director of Parent & Child Coaching and Education Success Coach at MindChamps, Raymond continues to present Parenting Strategies workshops for parents, coaching sessions and championship enrichment skills for children.
